

CSAAM Survey 2014 - Awareness

1. Do you think child sexual abuse (CSA)

Mark only one oval.

- Happens only in rural areas
- Happens to a small extent in cities
- Can happen anywhere
- Can't say

2. Who do you think are more susceptible to abuse?

Mark only one oval.

- Girls
- Boys
- Both
- Can't say

3. How do you discuss CSA at home?

Tick all that apply.

- Only in private conversations with the children
- All doubts are cleared with all concerned family members present
- Elders in the family dictate what needs to be discussed
- We never discuss CSA at home
- Other: .....

4. How have you spoken to your child about CSA?

Tick all that apply.

- By talking about good touch / bad touch
- By telling them how to be careful about strangers
- By showing them videos online or books
- No, I have not discussed the subject
- Other: .....

5. You have not discussed CSA with your child becauseTick all that apply.*

- I don't think children need to know about it
- It's a very uncomfortable subject to broach
- Why discuss it, it doesn't happen to people like us
- The school has already done it for us
- I am not sure how to deal with the questions my children will ask me
- I have discussed CSA with my children
- Other: .....

6. What sources have helped you understand and discuss CSA?Tick all that apply.*

- Professionals dealing with CSA
- Online forums / social media / books / TV
- Family
- Friends
- School authorities
- Other: .....

7. Do you think CSA should be discussed in schools?Mark only one oval.*

- Yes
- No

8. What measures have you taken to safeguard your child?Tick all that apply.*

- You have the photo of driver / his phone number / vehicle number of the school bus for your child
- You have explained to your child about predators
- Your child knows both parents' phone numbers
- You have explained various dangerous situations and what to do in each one
- You have spoken to school authorities on measures they have in place
- You personally pick/drop/supervise any activity classes for your child
- Other: .....

9. What is the most difficult aspect of discussing CSA with your child?

Tick all that apply.

- Broaching the subject
- Explaining good touch and bad touch
- Dealing with children's questions
- Speaking such that the children are not frightened
- Other: .....

10. Do you know and understand the legal measures to be taken in case of abuse?

Tick all that apply.

- Yes
- No

11. What would help you make your child aware of CSA?

Tick all that apply.

- Audio-visual material
- Books
- Age-appropriate workshops for kids
- Workshops on CSA for parents
- Help with commonly asked tough questions from kids
- Other: .....

12. What should be done to increase awareness of CSA in general?

Tick all that apply.

- Better media campaigns
- Better networking with the right organizations
- More vocal NGOs
- Encouraging victims to share stories to help others to speak up
- Schools to discuss the subject
- More celebrity-based campaigns to generate interest and awareness
- Other: .....

13. What CSA issues can be tackled better?

Tick all that apply.

- Better legal approach
- Better awareness campaigns
- More open-minded discussions on the subject
- Better safety measures at multiple levels
- Support groups for victims and parents
- Greater access to shelters, counsellors and doctors
- Other: .....